

Are you experiencing depression?

The Riddle Lab at Florida State University is recruiting participants for a novel five-day brain stimulation treatment paradigm for people experiencing depression, which will take place on-campus.

Qualifications

- 18-65 years old
- Currently experiencing symptoms of depression
- No neurological disorders
- Not taking medications for ADD/ADHD

Duration

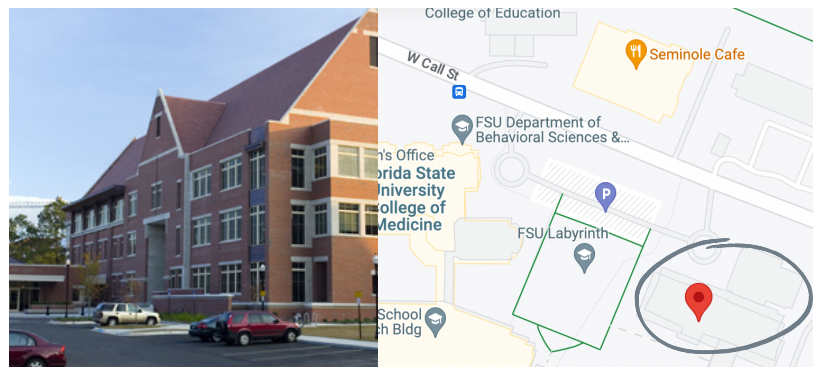

- 8 session study taking place over 4 weeks
- Approximately 15 hours

Compensation

- Payment is provided in an escalating payment scale (up to $410) for your time in the study

Location

- Sessions will take place on Florida State University's campus
- Free parking will be provided

Address

1107 W Call St
Tallahassee, FL 32304

Contact the Study Coordinator, Lauren Jackson
RiddleLabFSU@gmail.com | (850) 644-9869
Supervised by Dr. Justin Riddle, Ph.D.